

Organisation	Grant Awarded	Partner Group	Grant Awarded	Project Summary	Project Duration
Drumnamoe Nursery School Levin Road Lurgan BT67 9EU	£1,975	Dromore Nursery School 18 Banbridge Road Dromore BT25 1NB	£1,975	Cross community project focussing on nursery school children and their parents exploring 'the healthy option' - designed to encourage participants to eat healthier foods and lead more active lives. A healthy option cookbook will be produced and presentations given to other parents and children in both communities	Sept 2006 - June 2007
National Association of Headteachers Carnmoney House Edgewater Office Pk Belfast BT3 9JQ	4 grants of £1,975	Irish Primary Principals Network Johnstown Glounthaune Co. Cork Contact:	4 grants of €2750	Cross border, cross community project involving two teaching associations. Project focussed on cultural diversity in schools - challenges and opportunities and enabled teachers from both sides of the border to share experiences and good practice as well as spend time in their partner schools	Sept 2006 - May 2007
Millburn Primary School Greenaway Drive Coleraine BT52 2AQ	£1975	Scoil Cholm Cille Convent Road Letterkenny Co. Donegal Contact : Tony Gorman	€2750	Cross border, cross community project focussing on Integration/Interdependence - Taught through a healthy lifestyle. The project aims to introduce children to those from a different cultural background and enable them to participate in a programme of joint activities. The programme will focus on areas of literacy and numeracy eg. Word finds/number formation based on sports activities and active physical education	Nov 2006 - August 2007
Artability NI Ltd	£1975	Drumshambo	€2750	A Cross border cross community project linking the formal and	Sept 06 -

137 Agnes Street Belfast BT13 1GG		Vocational School Drumshambo Co. Leitrim		non formal education sectors and involving young people with and without disabilities. The project will focus on 'The Children of Lir', an old Irish mythology and will use the saga to explore ways of highlighting community issues and promoting peace and reconciliation. Participants will also create murals for display in their school and organisation.	May 2007
Chapel Road PS Knockdara Park Waterside Derry BT47 2BD	£1955	St Joseph's NS Rathmullen Co. Donegal Contact: Eugene Sharkey	€2750	This is a cross border, cross community project focussing on healthy lifestyles and introducing young people from different backgrounds to each other. Activities to include an introduction to different sports, healthy eating and the importance of caring both for themselves and their environment	Dec 2006 - June 2007
Glenbawn Youth Group 69 Glenbawn Avenue Belfast BT17 OTR	£1500	St Joseph's NS Avenue Road Dundalk Co. Louth	€2750	This is a cross border project focussing on the cultural heritage of participants and research into the shared history on the island of Ireland. The project which is cross sectoral, involving a voluntary youth organisation and a primary school, will facilitate good community relations through shared learning, research, cultural visits and web technology. Each participant on the project will gain an accredited award through ASDAN	March 2007 - October 2007
Slemish College Larne Road Ballymena BT42 3HA	£1953	St Joseph's NS Avenue Road Dundalk Co. Louth	€2750	This is a cross border project focussing on the cultural heritage of participants and research into the shared history on the island of Ireland. The project will involve second level pupils mentoring their counterparts in a primary school and will facilitate good community relations through shared learning, research, cultural visits and web technology. Each participant on the project will gain an accredited award through ASDAN	March 2007 - October 2007

St Patrick's College Broughshane Road Ballymena BT43 7DZ	£1975	Monaghan Collegiate Corlatt Monaghan Town Co. Monaghan	€2750	This new cross border, cross community link which will develop the theme of multi-culturalism and the promotion of tolerance and leadership using education through sport. Activities planned include interschool visits, a joint seminar to develop a sports leadership course, workshops on citizenship through sport as well as organising mini sports festivals.	Nov 2006 - Sept 2007
Ballee Community High School Ballee Road West Ballymena BT42 1HJ	£1975	Deel College Raphoe Co. Donegal	€2750	The theme of this cross border, cross community partnership is 'Mix and match' and will focus on multi-culturalism and the promotion of tolerance through sport. Neither school has a tradition of rugby playing and they have recently introduced Tag Rugby to their schools. Inter school games are planned along with workshops and organising mini sports festivals.	Nov 2006 - Sept 2007
Southern Education and Library Board Youth Service 3 Charlemont Place The Mall Aramagh BT37 9AX	£1175	Cairde Social Action Exchange Ltd Homefield House Bayview Avenue Bundoran Co. Donegal	€2750	This is a new cross border and cross community link which will address racism in both areas and explore the impact of different minority groups moving into each area and how this impacts on young people. It will also look at how young people view minorities and how they treat them. Young peoples attitudes and opinions of different cultures will be explored and challenged - it is hoped this will lead to better community relations in the two areas where there is a large ethnic minority population.	Sept 2006 - June 2007
Diocese of Kilmore, Elphin & Ardagh Youth Cloghan Derrylin	£1975	Dioceses of Elphin & Ardagh Youth The Rectory Edgeworthstown Co. Longford	€2750	This is a cross border project involving young people from Fermanagh, Sligo and Florencecourt in a project exploring bullying as a gateway to understanding wider social divisions. By approaching the subject from the young people's perspective and experience of bullying, racism and	March - Sept 2007

Enniskillen Co. Fermanagh BT92 9LD				sectarianism will seem less distant and unapproachable. This cross border project will help foster a greater understanding of these issues in our society
National Assoc of Head Teachers Carnmoney House Edgewater Business Park Belfast BT3 9JQ	4 grants of £1950	Irish Primary Principals Network Johnstown Glounthaune Co. Cork	2 grants of €2750	This is the reciprocal exchange visit by Northern teachers to the South. The project aims to increase understanding of educational issues and challenges North and South. The sharing and dissemination of learning gained will help break down barriers and dispel myths. For many of the participants on the first leg of the exchange this was their first visit to N Ireland. Equally this will be the first opportunity for many Northern principals to gain an indepth insight into the Southern educational system.	January - September 2007
Derry Youth & Community Workshop 6 Society Street Derry BT48 6PJ	£1888	Drumreilly Foroige Club Derrygoan Ballinamore Co. Leitrim	€2700	This new cross border link aims to look at the history of Ireland in the context of peace & reconciliation and examine cultural diversity through the medium of photography and art. The project will introduce young people from different cultures and allow them to explore their differences and similarities through teamwork, peer discussion groups and photography workshops with the aim of producing a joint mural depicting peace and reconciliation amongst Catholics and Protestants and cross border communities.	March - September 2007